

Take off your face covering before you go further

- Wash your hands or use hand sanitiser before and after taking it off
- Don't touch the front of the face covering or the part that's touched your mouth and nose
- If you've got a cloth face covering, put it in a plastic bag to take home with you
- If you've got a single-use face covering, put it in the bin